Day 1 – Sat Jul 23: RIJEKA – KRK
From 11:30 am to 1:00 pm, boarding time in the port of Rijeka. After embarkation, heading towards the island of Krk. We will moor in a bay to dive for the first time into the beautiful waters of the Adriatic Sea. Then we continue on to Krk, the capital of the island, or Punat, where we will moor for the night.

Day 2 – Sun Jul 24: KRK – RAB
After breakfast, we set off for the next island – Rab. After about two hours, we will drop anchor in a romantic bay – here you will have plenty of time for swimming and sunbathing. We will reach the town of Rab in the late afternoon. The old town of Rab, with its impressive bell towers, stretches around a narrow, rocky promontory, flanked by water. Three streets pass through the old town – the “Lower Street” (Donja Ulica) with cafés and pubs, the “Middle Street” (Srednja Ulica) with boutiques, souvenir shops and ice cream parlours, and the “Upper Street” (Gornja Ulica), which leads to the four churches with their bell towers. Overnight stay in Rab.

Day 3 – Mon Jul 25: RAB – PAG
This morning sail to the Island of Pag, which stands out above all by its extremes – partly meagre like a lunar landscape, partly covered with lush green mountain fields, where numerous sheep graze, “producing” the famous Pag cheese. Overnight stay in Pag.

Day 4 – Tue Jul 26: PAG – KORNATI – DUGI OTOK
Surely the highlight of our trip! The beautiful scenery, countless small and large islands (according to local lore “an island for every day of the year”), and the beautiful sea – all this makes the Kornati Islands a unique paradise.
We continue to the island of Dugi Otok. Dugi Otok, which means “Long Island”, is named after its shape – it is 45 km long and only a few hundred metres wide. The majority of the islanders live and work in Zadar, therefore in low tourist season it is very quiet on the island locations, while you can expect typical Mediterranean bustle on weekends, when the locals return to their hometowns. Before entering one of the island’s ports for our overnight stay, we will anchor in one of the many coves, to take a refreshing swim.

Day 5 – Wed Jul 27: DUGI OTOK – LOSINJ
We head towards the island of Losinj, which is not only known for its 300 cloudless or only slightly clouded sunny days per year, but also for being covered by dense pine forests. After a swimming break, we will reach Mali Losinj, where we will spend the evening and the night.

Day 6 – Thu Jul 28: LOSINJ – CRES
Today we will sail to the neighbouring island of Cres. The striking feature of the island are the endless olive groves and the innumerable flocks of sheep. Needless to say, that roast lamb is one of the specialties of the island of Cres. After the obligatory swimming break, we will head towards the picturesque town of Cres, where we will stay for the night.

Day 7 – Fri Jul 29: CRES – RIJEKA
Time to say goodbye to the Croatian islands: from Cres we will cruise along the eastern shoreline of Istria to Rijeka – not without taking one last dip into the sea. Overnight stay in the port of Rijeka.

Day 8 – Sat Jul 30: DEPART RIJEKA
After breakfast, disembarkation until 9:00 am.
